

72 P#
2/2/70

CD75:662: I have long been interested in this bag, even before Popkin spotted that interest. His report is but one of the indications I have that there never was any such bag until the police felt they needed it. I will be going into this in Act 0s., but if you have any special interests, I have a file on the bag and can locate probably most if not all that way.